DECISION C/DEC.6/12/94 ON THE MINIMUM AGENDA FOR ACTION (1995) ON FREE MOVEMENT OF PERSONS

THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS

Mindful of Article 6 of the ECOWAS Treaty establishing the Council of Ministers and defining its composition and functions,

Mindful of Articles 2, 3, and 27 of the ECOWAS Treaty;

Mindful of Protocol A/P.11/5/79 dated 29 May, 1979 on the free movement of persons, right of residence and establishment;

Mindful of Decision A/DEC.2/7/87 relating to the adoption of an ECOWAS monetary cooperation programme;

Mindful of Decision A/DEC.5/7/92 dated 29 July, 1992 on the Minimum Agenda for Action (1992/1993) on Free Movement of Persons and Goods;

Considering the Final Communique of the Seventeenth Session of the Authority of Heads of State and Government held in Abuja from 5th to 7th August 1994 authorising the Council of Ministers to adopt a new Minimum Agenda on Free Movement of Persons for 1995 devoted exclusively through the creation of an enabling environment conducive to the free movement of persons through the elimination of all existing obstacles;

Noting that the major obstacle to integration efforts is the non-application of approved policies and programmes by Member States;

Convinced that the application by Member States of texts relating to free movement of persons constitutes the oasis for the building of ECOWAS;

Convinced that the smooth implementation of all social, cultural and economic activities within the region and consequently, the well being of the peoples of the Community depend on the effective and speedy application of the said texts;

Aware of the need for a new minimum agenda for action whose objective for 1995 will be the facilitation of free movement of Community citizens;

DECIDES

Article 1

Member States hereby undertake to lift all remaining obstacles to free movement of persons on their territory. To that end, each Member State shall undertake all activities and implement measures contained in the minimum agenda for action for 1995 on Free Movement of Persons hereto attached.

Article 2

Each Member State shall forward to the Executive Secretariat, which shall transmit to the Council of Ministers, a report stating measures taken at the national level to implement this Decision.

Article 3

The Executive Secretariat shall monitor the implementation of this Decision.

Article 4

The Executive Secretariat shall present to the thirty-seventh session of Council an updated version of a new Minimum Agenda on free movement of persons and goods.

Article 5

This Decision shall enter into force upon signature and shall be published in the Official Journal of the Community and in the National Gazette of each Member State.

DECISION C/DEC.9/12/94 ADOPTING AN ECOWAS PRIORITY PROGRAMME OF ACTION ON INFORMATION

THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS

Mindful of Article 6 of the ECOWAS Treaty establishing the Council of Ministers and defining its composition and functions;

Mindful of Decision C/DEC.1/5/90 relating to the formulation and implementation of an ECOWAS information policy and programme;

Considering that the ECOWAS Information Programme and other approved policies relating to information have remained largely unimplemented by Member States;

Noting that one of the major obstacles to ECOWAS integration efforts is the lack of knowledge of the grassroots population of Member States of ECOWAS programmes, activities and objectives;

Convinced that the implementation of a programme of action to promote ECOWAS would increase and encourage involvement of the grassroot communities, media practitioners, professional associations and non-governmental organisations in the Community integration process;

On the recommendation of the Sixth Meeting of the Social and Cultural Affairs Commission held in Lagos from 8 to 10 November, 1994;

DECIDES

Article 1

The ECOWAS Priority Programme of Action on Information attached to this Decision is hereby adopted.

Article 2

1. Each Member State shall submit a yearly report, through the Executive Secretary, to the session of Council preceding the Summit of Heads of State and Government, indicating the action taken at national level to give effect to this Decision.
2. The Executive Secretariat shall also submit a report on action taken at Community level to give effect to this Decision.

Article 3

The Executive Secretary shall monitor the implementation of this Decision and shall, where necessary, assist Member States in its implementation.

Article 4

This Decision shall enter into force upon signature and shall be published in the Official Journal of the Community and in the National Gazette of each Member State.

DECEMBER, 1994

DR. KWESI BOTCHWEY
CHAIRMAN
FOR COUNCIL.

PRIORITY PROGRAMME OF ACTION ON INFORMATION

The following Programme of Action is largely derived from Decision C/DEC.1/5/90 relating to the formulation and implementation of an ECOWAS Information Policy and Programme.

The activities and measures set out in Decision C/DEC.1/5/90 were further expanded with additional recommendations from the Conference of Ministers of Information and media experts on Information, Communications and African Integration held in Dakar, Senegal from 4 to 6 November, 1991.

On the recommendation of the Social and Cultural Affairs Commission which met in Lagos from 8 to 10 November, 1994 Council hereby calls on Member States and various concerned groups, especially media practitioners, at all levels, to mobilize for an effective implementation of the following activities and measures aimed at promoting the West African integration process through national and official languages, images and symbols.

At the National Level

- national and private radio and television stations devote, at least on a monthly basis, a programme entitled ECOWAS TIME which will seek to popularize and promote ECOWAS objectives and the West African Community;

- national and private radio and television stations should encourage co-production and exchange of programmes aimed at fostering regional integration;
 - national and private newspapers and magazines should devote, at least on a bi-monthly basis, a special page on news and reports on ECOWAS TODAY. This page which will be a forum on ECOWAS, its programmes and its Member States will encourage adequate monitoring and promotion of the West African regional integration process;
 - national and private newspapers co-produce and exchange feature articles on the many facets of the West African realities;
 - West African national news agencies and PANA increase their coverage of the political and socio-economic realities of West Africa;
 - national ECOWAS experts and leading national personalities in the various socio-economic fields (trade unions, universities, sports, religion, women and youths, etc) should be closely associated with media houses' efforts to promote ECOWAS goals and programmes;
 - Member States may establish a NATIONAL MEDIAL FUND ON REGIONAL INTEGRATION to improve and increase reporting on the West African regional integration process;
 - Member States should establish within an appropriate national structure an ECOWAS Information Centre (ECOWAS INFO-CENTRE) for the collection and distribution of information on and about ECOWAS;
 - WAJA, PANA, URTNA, WANAD, CIERRO and national media institutions in collaboration with ECOWAS Information Department, should accord greater priority to the dissemination of information and public enlightenment on the ECOWAS region throughout and beyond West Africa;
 - designated ECOWAS correspondents should be given the necessary assistance to perform their duties;
 - the ECOWAS flag be displayed alongside the national flags of Member States in any appropriate location, especially in the offices of the Heads of State, the Ministers of Foreign Affairs and public buildings. This would be a symbol of commitment to ECOWAS;
 - during the week of the anniversary of the founding of ECOWAS, ECOWAS Day be celebrated in each Member State in the form of:
 - a broadcast of a message on the state of the Community from the Executive Secretary;
 - seminars and conferences, round-table discussions on radio and TV, newspaper feature articles on ECOWAS objectives, activities and on Member States;
 - designing, printing and sale of commemorative postage stamps depicting images of Community ideals;
 - cultural, musical and film shows on the realities of our Community and its Member States;
 - Sporting activities among and between Member States to foster cordial and fraternal relationships between our peoples, particularly the youth population;
 - promotion of good sportsmanship by each Member State at all times;
 - quizzes, essays and song competitions, debates on ECOWAS and its Member States, student exchange programmes in order to inculcate the Community spirit among youths and school children;
 - adoption and strengthening of the teaching of ECOWAS in the curricula of educational institutions including mass literacy programmes;
 - posters, stickers, billboards, jingles and slogans about ECOWAS and its activities;
 - rallies, mobilisation campaigns and formation of national and regional socio-professional associations that would pursue programmes aimed at promoting their own interests within an integrated Community;
 - any other form a Member State may consider befitting.
- At the Community level, the ECOWAS Executive Secretariat will undertake
- to convene a meeting of media experts followed by a conference of Ministers of Information to consider and recommend for adoption a Declaration of Principles on the practice of journalism, including Principles of Pluralism, the protection of the profession and the role of media practitioners in the West African regional integration process;

- to establish a REGIONAL MEDIA TRUST FUND to encourage reporting and broadcasting regional integration matters within the Community during and after the 1995 ECOWAS YEAR, and to develop co-production and programme exchange schemes, training, exchange of information on technical matters, etc.
- to institute an ECOWAS PRESS CARD that would be issued to competent and qualified journalists selected in each Member State by the Ministry of Information, the West African Journalists Association or any other recognised national media organisation;
- to organise an annual REGIONAL FORUM which will bring together regional and international opinion leaders, journalists, development experts, business community, professional associations, etc. to debate on issues of interest to the Community for the promotion and development of the West African region;
- to institute and organise a meritorious award to be known as THE ECOWAS ORDER OF MERIT to ordinary West African citizens who have distinguished themselves in various fields and have made outstanding contributions to the development of the ECOWAS region. Subsequently, such prominent West African citizens shall be appointed ECOWAS GOODWILL AMBASSADORS who will further the cause of integration both within and outside the Community
- to launch a competition for the creation of an ECOWAS Anthem to be broadcast on all significant occasions or activities touching on the life of ECOWAS or of its Member States.

DECISION C/DEC.11/12/94 RELATING TO THE ESTABLISHMENT OF AN ECOWAS CONSULTATIVE REGULATORY COMMITTEE FOR TELECOMMUNICATIONS

THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS

Mindful of Article 6 of the ECOWAS Treaty establishing the Council of Ministers and defining its composition and functions;

Considering the pressure on public operators to liberalise the services and conditions of access to national networks;

Considering the need to have a regional regulatory framework conducive to the emergence of a single, well regulated and well planned network;

On the recommendation of the thirty-seventh meeting of the Transport, Communications and Energy Commission held in Lagos from 25 to 28 October, 1994;

DECIDES

Article 1

There is hereby established an ECOWAS consultative regulatory committee for telecommunications.

Article 2

The committee shall be composed of heads of telecommunications services in Member States.

Article 3

The ECOWAS consultative regulatory committee for telecommunications shall make proposals to:

- establish a standardised procedure for licensing, declaration and authorisation;
- identify factors and mechanisms likely to stimulate investments in telecommunications;
- create consultative mechanisms which will give due regard to the interests of operators and users;
- introduce procedures necessary to ensure an efficient regulatory policy, particularly with regard to frequency management and approval of terminal equipment;
- define procedures for the settlement of disputes.

Article 4

The committee shall present a report on its activities to Council through the Transport, Communications and Energy Commission.

Article 5

The Executive Secretariat shall take all necessary measures to implement this Decision.

Article 6

This Decision shall enter into force upon signature and shall be published in the Official Journal of the Community and in the National Gazette of each Member State.

DECISION C/DEC.13/12/94 ADOPTING AN ACTION PLAN AND SCHEDULE OF RATIONALISATION OF WEST AFRICAN INTER-GOVERNMENTAL ORGANISATIONS (IGOs)

THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS

Mindful of Article 6 of the ECOWAS Treaty establishing the Council of Ministers and defining its composition and functions;

Recalling Decisions A/DEC.8/5/83, A/DEC.5/5/90 and A/DEC.12/7/91 on the rationalisation of West African inter-governmental organisations;

Recognising the need to energise and accelerate the integration process in the region in order to ensure the effective development of national economies in West Africa;

Bearing in mind the mandate given to the Executive Secretariat by the Authority of Heads of State and Government to engage consultants to carry out a study, as a prelude to evolving a flexible, pragmatic plan for the rationalisation of all inter-governmental organisations in the West African region;

Considering the survey of ECOWAS and other West African inter-governmental organisations carried out by the Consultant, the Institute for Economic Development and Planning (IDEP);

Having considered the report of the meeting of experts and heads of West African inter-governmental organisations held in Accra from 19 to 22 September, 1994 to consider the conclusions drawn by the IDEP survey;

DECIDES

Article 1

The action plan and schedule of rationalisation of inter-governmental organisations in West Africa are hereby adopted as contained in the annex to this Decision.

Article 2

The supreme authority of each IGO shall direct the executive head concerned to collaborate fully with the ECOWAS Executive Secretariat to facilitate execution of the action plan and schedule of rationalisation.

Article 3

The practical modalities for the merger or transformation of specific IGOs shall be identified in a study to be conducted, once a formal decision has been taken by its competent political organ in favour of rationalisation.

Article 4

The ECOWAS Executive Secretariat and the authorities of the IGOs concerned shall take all necessary measures to ensure implementation of this Decision.

Article 5

This Decision shall enter into force upon signature and shall be published in the Official Journal of the Community and in the National Gazette of each Member State.

RESOLUTION C/RES.1/12/94 RELATING TO THE IMPACT OF THE DEVALUATION OF THE CFA FRANC ON THE ARREARS OWED BY MEMBER STATES IN RESPECT OF THE CONSTRUCTION OF THE HEADQUARTERS' BUILDINGS

THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS

Mindful of Article 6 of the ECOWAS Treaty establishing the Council of Ministers and defining its composition and functions;

Considering the recommendation made in the Report of the thirty-second session of the Board of Directors of the ECOWAS Fund held in Lome from 12 to 14 December, 1994;

PROPOSES TO THE AUTHORITY OF HEADS OF STATE AND GOVERNMENT

To adopt the Decision and table relating to the impact of the devaluation of the CFA Franc on the arrears owed by Member States in respect of the construction of the Headquarters' buildings.

DONE AT LOME, THIS 17TH DAY OF DECEMBER, 1994

DR. KWESI BOTCHWEY
CHAIRMAN
FOR COUNCIL.

RESOLUTION O/RES.2/12/94 RELATING TO THE ESTABLISHMENT OF NATIONAL TECHNICAL COMMITTEES TO MONITOR THE INTER-STATES TELECOMMUNICATIONS NETWORK

THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS

Mindful of Article 6 of the ECOWAS Treaty establishing the Council of Ministers and defining its composition and functions

Considering the current status of the West African PANAFTTEL network;

Considering that with the dissolution of the PANAFTTEL Coordination Bureau, ECOWAS is now exclusively responsible for coordinating and monitoring the network;

Considering that these functions cannot be carried out effectively without the close collaboration of national telecommunications Administrations;

On the recommendation of the thirty-seventh meeting of the Transport, Communications and Energy Commission held in Lagos from 25 to 28 October, 1994;

PROPOSES TO THE AUTHORITY OF HEADS OF STATE AND GOVERNMENT

To adopt the Decision relating to the establishment of national technical committees to monitor inter-State telecommunications network.

DONE AT LOME, THIS 17TH DAY OF DECEMBER, 1994

DR. KWESI BOTCHWEY
CHAIRMAN

RESOLUTION C/RES.3/12/94 ON SPECIAL REDUCED RATES FOR TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICES ON ECOWAS DAY (28 MAY)

THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS

Mindful of Article 6 of the ECOWAS Treaty establishing the Council of Ministers and defining its composition and functions;

Considering the contribution of ECOWAS Institutions to the financing, coordination and maintenance of the inter-State telecommunications network since the first priority programme was launched in 1979;

Considering the clear success achieved by the programme and its positive impact on the performance of the inter-State network;

Desiring to celebrate the success annually;

Considering also that the 28th day of May of each year has been declared as ECOWAS Day to commemorate the establishment of ECOWAS and to promote all Community programmes and activities;

On the recommendation of the thirty-seventh meeting of the Transport, Communications and Energy Commission held in Lagos, from 25 to 28 October, 1994

PROPOSES TO THE AUTHORITY OF HEADS OF STATE AND GOVERNMENT

To adopt the Resolution on the granting, to the public, of special reduced rates for telecommunications services on ECOWAS Day (28 May) each year.

DONE AT LOME, THIS 17TH DAY OF DECEMBER, 1994.

DR. KWESI BOTCHWEY
CHAIRMAN

RESOLUTIONS C/RES.4/12/94 RELATING TO THE EXCHANGE OF ACCOUNTS AND SETTLEMENT OF DEBIT BALANCES BETWEEN TELECOMMUNICATIONS ADMINISTRATIONS OF MEMBER STATES

THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS

Mindful of Article 6 of the ECOWAS Treaty establishing the Council of Ministers and defining its composition and functions;

Considering the increasing imbalance noted in traffic flow between Member States;

Considering the world-wide trend which consists in exchanging accounts between telecommunications administrations;

Aware that non-exchange of accounts penalises some ECOWAS Member States' Administrations with regard to the handling of both terminal and transit traffic;

Recognising that the non-settlement of accounts constitutes a substantive impediment to the promotion of intra-community traffic;

On the recommendation of the thirty-seventh meeting of the Transport, Communications and Energy Commission which met in Lagos from 25 to 28 October, 1994:

PROPOSES TO THE AUTHORITY OF HEADS OF STATE AND GOVERNMENT

To adopt the Resolution on the exchange of accounts and settlement of debit balances between ECOWAS telecommunications administrations.

THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS

Mindful of Article 6 of the ECOWAS Treaty establishing the Council of Ministers and defining its composition and functions;

Mindful of Decision C/DEC/5/11/87 on the adoption of the revised ECOWAS telephone tariffs;

Recognising the need for ECOWAS to adopt a uniform tariff structure for telecommunication services between Member States;

On the recommendation of the thirty-seventh meeting of the Transport, Communications and Energy Commission held in Lagos from 25 to 28 October, 1994;

PROPOSES TO THE AUTHORITY OF HEADS OF STATE AND GOVERNMENT

To adopt the Resolution on the establishment of maximum tariffs for intra-Community telephone services.

DONE AT LOME, THIS 17TH DAY OF DECEMBER, 1994

DR. KWESI BOTCHWEY
CHAIRMAN
FOR COUNCIL.

RESOLUTION C/RES.6/12/94 ON THE GRANTING OF OBSERVER STATUS TO THE WEST AFRICAN JOURNALISTS ASSOCIATION (WAJA)

THE COUNCIL OF MINISTERS

Mindful of Article 6 of the ECOWAS Treaty establishing the Council of Ministers and defining its composition and functions;

Mindful of Decision A/DEC.9/8/94 establishing regulations for the granting to Non-Governmental Organisations (NGOs) the status of observer within the institutions of the Community dated 6 August, 1994;

Considering the important role that media organisations and practitioners can play to consolidate a West African Community spirit and to ensure an increased public awareness of the ideals of ECOWAS;

Anxious to promote an organic relationship between the Institutions of the Community and West African media organisations and practitioners;

Noting that the West African Journalists Association (WAJA) is a regional organisation of media practitioners which is committed to work for the achievement of the aims and objectives of the Community as enshrined in the ECOWAS Treaty;

On the recommendation of the sixth meeting of the Social and Cultural Affairs Commission held in Lagos from 8 to 10 November, 1994;

Having examined the application of the West African Journalists Association for observer status within the Institutions of the Economic Community of West African States,

PROPOSES TO THE AUTHORITY OF HEADS OF STATE AND GOVERNMENT

To adopt the Decision granting the Status of Observer to the West African Journalists Association.
